

Culpeper Democratic Meeting.

At a meeting of the Democratic Party of Culpeper, held at the Court House, on the 19th inst., on motion of Thos. Hill, Jr., the chair, Wm. T. Humphreys, was called to the chair, and H. M. Garland, Jr., appointed Secretary.

It was resolved to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for the House of Delegates. Before any action was taken, John W. Bell, whose name had been before the people, arose, and in a short speech, announced that he no longer occupied that position, and withdrew his name.

After Mr. Bell had closed his remarks, Thos. Hill, Jr., arose, and in very complimentary terms, offered the following resolution: Resolved, That this meeting, concurring with the determination of the people to confer upon our present beloved the merited compliment of requiring him to continue in public service, do nominate James Barbour as the candidate of the Democratic Party, to represent this county in the next House of Delegates.

He was seconded, by Jas. G. Field, whose remarks were also, very complimentary. The question was then put to the meeting, and the nomination of Mr. Barbour carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Hill then declared that a committee of three be appointed to wait on Mr. Barbour and inform him of his nomination. Whereupon the chair named Thos. J. Hill, Jr., Jas. G. Field, and Thos. Gibson. The committee having discharged the duty assigned them, returned, accompanied by Mr. Barbour, who immediately took the stand, amidst the cheers of the meeting, and in a brief, but pertinent speech, accepted the honor thus spontaneously conferred upon him, and for which he returned his unfeigned acknowledgments.

Geo. D. Gray then offered the following resolution, seconded by Capt. Jos. D. Brown, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic Party of Culpeper most cordially and heartily ratify and approve the nomination of the Petersburg Convention, for the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General, and that we will use all fair and honorable efforts to secure their election.

H. M. Garland, Jr., then offered the following resolution, which was also adopted:

Resolved, That Hon. John Letcher be, and is hereby invited to visit this county, at such time as may suit him, and address the people. This was seconded by John W. Bell, who moved that a committee of five be appointed to carry the resolution into effect. Whereupon the chair named the following as the committee: John W. Bell, H. M. Garland, Jr., Dr. R. S. Lewis, Jas. L. Stringfellow, and Chas. T. Crittenden.

On motion it was resolved to appoint a county elector, to support the nomination of the Petersburg Convention. Thos. J. Hill, Jr., named Geo. D. Gray, and the meeting unanimously agreed to the nomination. — Blue Ridge Republican.

Foreign Arrivals.

PORTLAND, March 23.—Letters by the Nova Scotia, dated Liverpool, March 9th, the day of the departure of the steamer, report cotton active, prices creeping upwards. Sales since Friday, 42,000 bales, of which speculators and exporters took 1,200. Spinners had entered the market freely, and the feeling at the close was very firm with a tendency to further advance. The actual improvement since the sailing of the Asia is one-sixteenth, the latest quotations being as follows: Middling Mids 6's; middling uplands 6's 67. Imports into Liverpool for the four days preceding the sailing of the Scotia were 51,000 bales. Letters state that the news from the continent has become more pacific, and the prospects of peace decidedly more encouraging. Funds at very latest dates in all leading money centres, active and advancing.

Coal Trade.

For the week ending Saturday, March 19, 5,471 tons of coal were shipped over the Chesapeake and Pennsylvania Railroad, and 4,422 tons over the road of the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company. Total shipments for the year form the entire report, 37,441 tons. During the week ending March 22, 1859, fifty-two boats cleared this port, carrying 6,988,141 tons of coal. During the season, 84 boats cleared this port, carrying 8,491,075 tons.—Cumberland Chronicle.

New Orleans Commercial Arrivals.
NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—The receipts of cotton are small, and desirable lots are quite scarce. We quote strict middling at 11 1/2 cts. The exports to Great Britain, the past week, were large, reaching 42,000 bales. Crop estimates in consequence of the falling off in receipts, are being reduced, and there are few who believe in a total yield of over 3,600,000 bales, while many do not go as high.

$16.75 to $16.80 were the prices paid for Sugar, at the auction sale, on Monday.

SCIT DECIDED.—At the recent term of the Circuit Court of Hanover, the suit of William T. Wickham vs. the Virginia Central Railroad was decided in favor of the plaintiff. This suit, which has excited a good deal of interest, was brought for the recovery of damages in the burning of a large amount of cord wood, belonging to the plaintiff, in April 1859. This wood was accumulated near the railroad, and was alleged to be burned by sparks from the locomotive. The jury assessed the damages at $1,106 and interest from the time the wood was burned.—Rich. Dispatch.

A MAMMOTH CAR.—A car is now being constructed at the workshop of the M. G. Railroad, at this place under the superintendence of Mr. N. Binney, intended for the transportation of such bulky articles as hay, &c., and which measures about fifty feet in length and nearly nine in width. It can also be used, if necessary, for the carrying of live stock.—Woodstock Post Legion.

Payne, Randolph, Cyrus Cross, were appointed delegates to the County Convention which assembled in Warrenton on Monday next.

A trial of James Johnson, charged with murdering his wife, is now in progress in Rappahannock county, and the case will probably be given to the jury to-day.

Explosion in New York.

An old frame building No. 481 Broome street, occupied as a workshop and dwelling by Jacob Peth, gunsmith, was blown up on Tuesday morning. About 10 o'clock the people in the neighborhood heard a report like the roar of a large piece of artillery, followed by a shock which shook every building in the vicinity. The house in which the explosion occurred was instantly enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke and dust, and as soon as the cleared away, presented a picture of utter desolation. Peth was working at a spark flyout in the basement, when he saw a spark fly out of the fire, and the explosion immediately followed. He supposes that the spark must have fallen into a can of powder which stood partially open on a bench at the rear of the shop. The force of the explosion burst out the walls and windows of the house, ripped up the floors and destroyed everything within reach. Although very severely burned in the face and on the arms, Peth's first thoughts were for his children. He darted through the falling timbers to the stairs, and sprang up to the fluttering steps to the second floor, where his heart was gladdened by the sight of his two little ones, alive and unharmed. Their mother had just gone out on an errand, and they were entirely alone. Although the sides of the house had been blown out, the bedstead, table, chairs and stove overturned and broken, and the floor upheaved and rent in many places, the children had escaped without the slightest injury.

At New Orleans, March 18, three criminals, Henrich Haas, Peter Smith, and Joseph Lindsey, were hung, all on one scaffold. They all confessed their crimes just previous to their execution.

LOCAL ITEMS.

CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.—Election of Officers.—Both branches of the City Council met last night. In the Common Council Mr. Beach from the Committee on General Laws reported a bill, under a resolution passed at the last meeting of Council, directing the committee to inquire into the expediency of reducing the number of Night Watch, Police Constables, and Physicians to the Poor; which cuts down the number of Night Watch from twelve to eight, and Police Constables from four to three—no reduction in the number of Physicians to the Poor is made. A motion was made to suspend the 23rd rule to allow the passage of the bill, which was lost—so the bill lies over until the next meeting.

Upon invitation the Board of Aldermen came into the Chamber of the Common Council, and the election of officers was proceeded with, with the following result:

Superintendent of Night Watch—John Moore, re-elected.

Watchmen—Robert Wade, John Thompson, Lewis Tichen, A. J. Ogden, B. Waring, L. Patton, Samuel Jefferson, H. Jefferson, J. W. King, E. Horsemann, C. Tennesseon, J. P. Whitmore—the same as last year.

Police Constables—Richard Warder, J. B. Hancock, Edward Davis, Joseph Padgett—the same as last year.

Physicians to the Poor—W. B. Gregory, T. I. Adam, C. W. Chancellor, H. Snowden—the two first re-elected.

Harbor Masters—Thomas Travers, E. Bacon; re-elected.

Keeper of Poor and Work House—John Stephens; re-elected.

Treasurer—J. D. Cook, re-elected.

Regulator of the Town Clock—Geo. H. Duffey; re-elected.

Corporation Scavenger—Thomas Waring.

Guardians of Free School—E. Harrison, S. Scott, W. N. Berkley, E. W. Witmer, and S. H. Williams.

No other business of interest was transacted, and Council adjourned.

NO SOUTHERN MAIL.—The steamer Powhatan, from Aquia Creek, passed by this place yesterday afternoon, without stopping, and in consequence we received no Southern mail. We received a copy of the Richmond Dispatch, via the Central and Orange and Alexandria Railroads.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO COMPANY.—The meeting of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company advertised to take place in Washington, yesterday, was not held, a majority of the Board of Public Works of Maryland not being present, and Mr. Schley one of the Board having given as his opinion, that the meeting was illegal. It is however concluded that the question of an advance in the rates of tolls, is settled, a majority of the Board being opposed to any increase. The next meeting of the Company, the regular annual meeting, will be held in June.

INCENDIARY FIRES.—The frequency of incendiary fires in this place—the apparent boldness with which the attempts are made to destroy property—the selection of the most dangerous places for the commencement of a conflagration—and the impunity which so far has attended the acts of the perpetrators, are all attracting much attention, and inducing our citizens to consult together as to the proper steps to be taken in the present emergency. Something should be done in the case. Justice Price made every effort yesterday to obtain some clue to the incendiaries who have destroyed so much property of late, but without success.

FISH.—The receipts of fish at the fish wharf yesterday, were not very large, but the supply is equal to the demand at the present prices, viz: Shad, $10 to $20 per hundred; Herring, $15 to $18 per thousand; and hanch fish, 12 to 25 cents.

LECTURE.—St. Mary's Church was densely crowded, as usual, on Wednesday evening, by those who were desirous of hearing the fourth lecture of the course now in progress there. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Ryder, who read for his text the words of our Saviour: "And not for them only do I pray, but for them also who through their word shall believe in me, that they may all be one as thou, Father, in me, and I in thee; that the world may believe that thou has sent me." St. John, xvii, 20, 21. Upon this he delivered an able discourse on the necessity of union among Christians, and the means necessary for the preservation of unity, which he argued, were of Divine appointment. The occurrence of a large fire in the immediate vicinity interrupted the lecture for a few moments, but most of the congregation having returned, the lecturer continued his remarks and concluded by announcing his fifth lecture for Sunday next.

CHURCH FESTIVAL.—To-day is celebrated by the Catholic Church, throughout the world, as the "Feast of the Annunciation," in commemoration of the visit of the Angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary, and the Incarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ. Services will be held in St. Mary's Church at 7 and 10 o'clock, A. M. and 7 P. M.

GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY.—We have received from Mr. Geo. Siggers, No. 75 Prince street, the April number of the Great Republic Magazine, published by Messrs. Oaksmith & Co., New York. Among the contents are: Lakes of the Wilderness; Napoleon III—his destiny; The Tombs—New York; William and Mary College; The White Crow; Man an Omnivorous Animal; and a number of other interesting articles, with many illustrations.

SOIREE.—A gay and pleasant company of ladies and gentlemen were present on Wednesday night, at the Soiree of Professor Antonio, in Phenix Hall, where they "dined all night" and a small portion of the next morning, the inevitable approach of day light only putting a stop to their exercises.

GREAT BARGAINS.—Just received, 2,000 Ladies' Linen Cambric Handkerchiefs, from 60 cents up. Also Gaudin's d'oe, a very superior article, at 25 cents. A large stock of Under-shirts, at 25 cents, still remain on hand.

At 25 S. W. MEYER, Sarepta Hall.

Yesterday was a raw and blustering day, unfavorable to the Potomac Fisheries.

LARGE AND RECEIVING STORES.

Walter Dyer and Benjamin Boswell, two lads, aged respectively 14 and 16 years, were arrested, the former on Saturday, and the latter on Wednesday night, and yesterday examined before Justice Price, for stealing some fish, rope, iron, &c., from the cellar of the dwelling of Mr. John T. Hill, on Water street, last Monday week, and committed to jail to answer a bill of indictment to be brought against them by the grand jury of the April (quarterly) term of the County Court.

Joseph Mahone, a white man, was also examined, and sent to jail to be further examined at the next term of the Court, for receiving the fish, knowing them to have been stolen.

INDICTMENT OF HON. DANIEL E. SICKLES.—The grand jury of Washington, yesterday, came into Court with a true bill of indictment against Daniel E. Sickles, for the murder of Philip Barton Key.

CRUEL TREATMENT.—A jury of inquest was summoned on Tuesday, by Coroner Woodward, on the body of a colored boy, named John W. Harris, aged eight years, that had died at the house of his mother on Jefferson street, below Bridge, Georgetown. The circumstances of the boy's death, as reported, are, that some time since he was bound to a white resident of Washington by the mother until he became of age; for his time she had paid $20. Last week she was informed that the boy was either sick or being badly treated. On Friday she took him home where he suddenly died. The jury, after a most painful hearing of the evidence, and a thorough scrutinizing of all the facts connected with the affair, rendered a verdict of which the following is the substance: "That the boy came to his death from the want of proper nourishment, and from the neglect and cruel treatment inflicted upon him by the inmates of the house where he had lived." — Wash. Star.

A SLAVE CASE.—We have received from Justice Donn the following statement. The case is a remarkable one:

"A free colored woman, named Catherine Jackson, has been residing in this city, for the most eight or ten years, and was last living in the family of Senator Wright, of New Jersey, as a servant, and whose mother was a slave of the West family, in Fairfax county, State of Virginia, and was set free by will in 1853, and received her papers, and removed to Philadelphia, where Catherine was born in 1837. The mother soon after returned to Virginia, making the home of the West's as hers, and looking to them for protection. Catherine generally resided in the city. One of the West family, having removed to this city, concluded that he would arrest Catherine and sell her forthwith. She getting word of his intentions, went into Virginia and procured a paper from the elder West, requesting Justice Donn to protect her here, and forwarding all persons from interfering with her. Notwithstanding this, the younger West, although forewarned of the consequences, by the assistance of Police Officer Daw, went to the residence of Senator Wright, and under the promise of carrying her to the justice's, took her into possession, and carried her to the office of John C. Cook, a dealer in negroes, from there she was sent to Virginia, where he met Mr. Cook, and sold her; and she was then immediately carried to Alexandria, where she still remains. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the parties, and measures have been taken to have the case immediately before the grand jury for kidnapping and conspiracy. Senator Wright is taking measures to have the girl before the courts of Virginia.

The Mayor, we believe, is about to investigate the action of the police officer in the matter. — Wash. Star.

The Washington Post of yesterday afternoon says:—Justice of Mr. John H. Cook, whose name was mentioned in connection with the kidnapping case, noticed above, we state that we are informed that Mr. Cook made the purchase of the woman in the State of Virginia, and when told by the girl that Justice Donn knew she was free, he informed the Justice, and promised not to pay for her or remove her from Alexandria until he was satisfied she was the property of West.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP.—We learn that Tilton P. Brown, esq., senior partner of Brown's Marble Office, has disposed of his half interest in that establishment to his brother and late partner, Marshall Brown, esq., who will hereafter conduct it in his own name. — Wash. States.

THE LOSS BY THE FIRE ON Wednesday night, will amount to about $500, on which Messrs. Day and Harmon had no insurance.

The steamer St. Nicholas, has commenced her trips from Baltimore up the Potomac, as far as Port Tobacco creek.

POSTSCRIPT.

Alleged Murder of a Railroad Engineer. SAVANNAH, March 23.—The passengers by the steamship Florida, from Jacksonville, (Fla.) on the state that Maj. J. L. Gregg, the chief engineer of the Florida Railroad, was shot dead on Saturday last by a man named Alfred T. Sears, in consequence of a previous difficulty. Both gentlemen were natives of Massachusetts.

There was great excitement, and it was feared that lynch law would be substituted for legal proceedings.

SECOND DISPATCH.—The body of Maj. Gregg has arrived here en route to his former residence, in Massachusetts.
